

NEWLYN INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL 2019 FILM INFORMATION

Friday Student Films 2-4pm Main Hall

15th August	Anilkumar Salve India	15 th August is Independence Day A real story of helpless people .. the boy wants a uniform for the celebrations.. his mother struggles to find the	19:38
Back Home	Haruka Motohashi US	Back Home is an autobiographical documentary about the film maker's personal journey to reconcile the rift between herself and her estranged mother, who is about to have a hip operation in Tokyo. Her visit will relive past trauma's.	12:50
Airborne	Joanna Beard UK	Story of a little girl who grows up to be a glider pilot	25:00
Ida	Ekaterina Rusakovich UK	Ida, an ambitious woman becomes a performer in a circus. The film was inspired by Ida Rubenstein, an ugly woman, who became the first Russian Jewish woman to perform naked on stage	7:21
Yume	Grace Swee Japan	A young Japanese girl keeps a secret from her family to assuage the jadedness she feels in her life.	12:26
Beyond the Pointy Hat	Shannon Meilak Australia	Witches are often portrayed as wart faced hags, riding around on broomsticks and adding eye of newt to their bubbling cauldron. But, have you ever met a real witch? Join four everyday Australians as they embark on a journey of truth	6:13
Searching for Happiness	Matt Melling UK	An unhappily married middle aged man, a greetings card writer, becomes quickly infatuated with the charming young woman who sold him a Christmas tree	24:38
Life on a Thread	Matt Melling UK	Life on a Thread follows paraglider Brad Nicholas as he flies above the mountainous landscape of North Wales.	5:00
The Tyger	Radheya Jegatheva Australia	Animated creation inspired by William Blake's poem The Tyger, written in 1794.	2:48

Wild Beasts	Sverre Kvamme Norway	In the middle of winter in the North of Norway and surrounded by a wild group of kids, a young boy's impulses are affected by his attraction to his best friend	9:50
Words Eaten	Lada Iskanderova Russia	19-year-old Kira is confident in herself and knows everything better than others. Having quarreled with her best friend, mother, father and aunt Olya, she realizes how much she was mistaken.	23:00
Evan- A survivors Story	Kurdistan	Evan, a survivor from a ISIS attack. He is from Kurdistan in the Middle East and had to leave his homeland . Now he lives far away from his family and wants to touch and smell them again.	18:50

Friday Documentary Main Hall 4-5.30pm

Blood Bikers	David Hayes UK	Story of unknown and essential group of volunteers delivering medical supplies for the NHS.	9:22
Zulu
A Life in a Week	Henry Scott-Irvine UK	Viewed through an actual week in the life of Jonny Cross, while also looking back at his entire life, Cross - aka Jonny The Fox - was the only boy dancer in a class full of girls.	44:40

Saturday Poetry Films Lucy English Talk / Films 11.00-12.00 Main Hall

Our Lady of The Rocks
Solstice Sol
Invictus.
Stone Life
Working With Light

Saturday Poetry Films 11.00-12.00 Main Hall

The Opened Field	Helmie Stil Holland	Six boys finding their own identities based on DomBury's poem 'The Opened Field'	4:15
As we Embrace	Amang Hung Taiwan	An author-made poetry film based on the poem "As We Embrace Thousands Are Dying ALL Over the World" with chanting in many languages to form a kind of poetry mantra	4:36
Dog Daze	Ian Gibbins Australia	Inspired by the David Bowie song Diamond Dogs	4:03
Does This Make Sense?	Elizabeth Godber UK	In her hometown of Hull, Elizabeth Godber poet, walks home after a crazy night out.	1:48
Gaia Regards Her Children	Tova Beck-Friedma US	A poem by Alema Ostriker criticising the way we treat the earth. This film marks the anniversary of female suffrage. The film starts 100 years ago with some women making a banner on the eve of the march for women.	2:46
Small Hours and Binmen	Paul Chambers UK	Film about the hopelessness of spending your time on the streets getting pissed and chasing the opposite sex.	4:45
The Shell	Lois Norman UK	This film explores isolation and loneliness that suppressed trauma can hold and the power that compassion has to reach us.	3:21
Artica Time and Two Year Old Hands	Stevie Ronnie UK	Arctica is a series of interlinked artworks, borne from writer and artist Stevie Ronnie's 2013 journey to the High Arctic through the Arctic Circle international residency programme. As part of Arctica, Alastair Cook was commissioned by Stevie to make a triptych of short Film poems with sound by Italian composer Luca Nasciuti	2:56
We are Strong We Are Brave	Bethia Thomas UK	This poem was written for the young people in DCH's Foyer Federation, young people's network who have faced barriers in their lives due to homelessness.	2:01
When the Poet Knocks	Tautvydas Baranauskas UK	Rowan McCabe is the original door to door poet. In 2016 he embarked on an epic journey travelling all over the UK	2:28

Saturday Animation 12-1 pm Main Hall

Butterfly and Mouse	Mira Yankova Bulgaria	A short jazzy film about the fears that obstruct man's way to himself and to others.	14:19
BIWY	Raccoon UK	In a waiting room in a clinic, two children meet while they wait to take blood, one of them has already done it while the other is his first experience.	3:00
Post-Mortem	James Todd UK	A story about Death carrying out his grim job in the final days of the world. In his loneliness, he finds an unlikely friend.	5:00
Grandpa Walrus	Caïmans Productions France	A family take a trip to the coast where there are sand dunes.	14:45
Journey	Radheya Jegatheva Australia	Alone in space, an astronaut drifts through the empty void. After finding another astronaut in the same predicament, she gives him a polaroid image of the Earth.	7:40
Dont Look Under Your Bed	Radheya Jegatheva Australia	Someone moves from one apartment to another and it leads to some disastrous consequences, as things that go bump in the night are not merely dreams...	4:04
A Common Confusion	Sarah Gebhard Germany	Based on the parable by Franz Kafka. Two people try to meet unsuccessfully. Common confusion denies logic, or any access.	6:20
Late Afternoon	Louise Bagnal Ireland	Emily finds finds herself disconnected from the world around her. She relives different memories from her life and must look to her past to connect with the present.	9:23
Cupid is not a Terrorist	Bellopropello Switzerland	Love is a random thing. Finding true love is thrilling. Especially if personally involved as a target.	5:22

Saturday Fiction 2.30-4.30pm Main Hall

Rammat Gammat	Ajitpal Singh India	One is a better footballer, the other richer, their friendship hits a crisis when money decides the merit.	18:22
Barren	ellipsis yu Japan	A little girl is taken away from an orphanage by a man. She regains her freedom 10 years later without anyone realising what she has suffered. She struggles and fails, finds love but loses out. This is a story about being human and being a woman.	45:00
Cut from Cloth	Simeon Costello UK	After a death in the family, estranged siblings gather around their father's coffin, to mourn and discuss their large inheritance. Tensions rise when William, the eldest sibling has different plans for the family estate from his sister Olivia.	15:33
Slaughter	Saman Hosseinpur	Ghasem is forced to sell their cow to spend a hard winter in their village	13:03
There Are No Dividends	Joe Haughey UK	Darren Hobbs entrepreneur wants manual workers to be able to compete with robots in the automaton revolution. One day he sneaks into a conference room in a fancy hotel to conduct a Careers Day under the banner of his newly formed company Unique Automaton Consultants.	9:00
Transmission	Varun Raman UK	Set in a dystopian Britain, now called Britannia the film is told from the traumatised perspective of Leonard.	17:26

Sunday Cornish Films 11-1.00pm Main Hall

St Agnes Heroes	Annabel Aguirre UK	Dorothy Gill Carey is a retired eminent scientist and now runs a hotel in the Cornish Village of St Agnes. In this documentary she takes us on a tour of her local area,	18:04
Serpentine	Grace Fox UK	Tim Penhallow, a middle aged Cornishman lives and works in the close knit coastal fishing village of Coverack. The sea has taken his son, and Tim has been repressing the guilt for a long time, now he must open up his feelings for his wife.	17:09
Life on a Thread	Matt Melling UK	The film follows paraglider Brad Nicholas as he flies above the mountains in North Wales.

Tonic of the Sea	UK	Film shows the link between mental health and sea swimming, when Kate recuperates by swimming nearly every single day off the rocks in Penzance.	8:16
Barbara Hepworth	UK	Barbara Hepworth Considers the Tourists at Trenwen. Interpretation of a poem by Rosie Jackson	2:14
Land of Winter	Tommy Creagh UK	A lost young man walks through the cold streets of Dublin in a wintry climate. He's trying to find a bar that will still be serving alcohol. Inspired by the works of James Joyce	13:58
Tailings	UK	This film is about contaminated waste at the Wheal Maid railings lagoon, Gwennap, Cornwall.	6:41
Another April	Julia Giles UK	A film about reconnecting with nature and the past on a country walk to a field called Demmon	5:39
The Signalman	Sema Basharan UK	An oral history documentary about Albert Coad, the only violin maker in Cornwall in the early 1920's	8:32
The Bends	UK	The film centers around David who witnesses a cataclysmic event at work	12:23

Sunday Documentary 3.00-4.00pm Main Hall

After Pinochet	UK	Chile's journey to democracy 25 years after the end of a lengthy dictatorship by General Augusto Pinochet, Chile is still struggling to regain a sense of wellbeing.	59:00
Life Begins at 90	Bejay Browne Cyprus	Ray Woolley, WW2 veteran is the world's oldest active scuba diver.	44:00
Zulu			30:00
Right Turn	Caroline Rumley US	A woman driving home is stopped by the cops, arrested and taken to jail for turning left on the eve of Trump's visit to the town.	6:00
The Sea and the Land	Ines Reinisch Germany	Malin Head Ireland 3 men share their personal thoughts about the past and the future.	14:46

Sunday 5 Fiction April 7th 5-6pm Main Hall

Absence	Rob Savage UK	A short film about the grieving process starring Paul McGann	2.53
Playing with Snowballs	Vaibhav Kaul UK	A dying man meets a sighing mountain. Together, they contemplate existence. Somewhere in the English Pennines, a young Himalayan poet has been living with a terminal affliction.	9.59
An Unkind Word	Edwin Flay UK	An ageing politician's world is turned upside down when a new website brings him more attention and publicity than he could ever want or need...	15.41

Hummingbird	Ajitpal Singh India	A couple are in conflict after the husband makes a bad deal.	13.00
Ladies Most Deject	Mark Salyer USA	A teenage girl from the Appalachian mountains struggles to protect her siblings from an addict mother.	15.29
Needletail	Alice Hamilton UK	A poignant not-quite-love story about three birdwatchers who cross the country in search of something extraordinary.	10.26
Third Quarter	Jonny Dry UK	A bewildered elderly man desperately searches the dark corners of his mind to understand the meaning behind the appearance of a mysterious envelope. Yet he has forgotten it was he who	29.23
Sundown	Ryan Hendrick UK	William, a man in his 70's is taken on a timeless journey to a remote Scottish Island to come to terms with his own mortality. Starring Caitlin Blackwood (Dr Who) & Frazer Hines (Dr Who, Emmerdale & Outlander)	12.00
N	Iacopo Di Girolamo UK	An expressionist nightmare in which an inventor and his colleague test the 'Automaton', a machine able to create things from nothing. The machine works perfectly as long as the items it's asked to create start with the letter N...in German. The results of the test will be predictably catastrophic.	13.41